SUMMARY

I am Habibur Rahaman, i am currently a student of Aliah university studying 3rd year of B - Tech computer science and engineering. I like to learn about new computer languages and computer hardware and try to make something new by learning them, and when I fail to make something new, I take some new experience.

EXPEREINCE

Honestly, I do not have much experience but coming from a poor family I started working at a very young age. I first took up the maintenance and cleaning duties in a computer Centre when I was in 9th standard. After 8 months I started filling up forms in a cyber cafe. After 5 months of learning some work, I got a job in a computer hardware store, and stayed with this job for 2 years, when the family situation got a little better, I started studying again and started a course called Diploma in Computer Science and Technology.
